Purposes of processing

Video surveillance is carried out in the pursuit of legitimate interests by the company STUTE Logistics (AG & Co) KG pursuant to point (f) of Art. 6(1) of the GDPR. These are:

- Protection of company property
- Protection against crime (burglary, theft, etc.)
- Protection against trespass on the company premises

No recording takes place on workdays between 6 a.m. and 8 p.m. Outside of the specified times, recording takes place as per the purpose of use. Please see below for the duration of storage.

Duration of storage (point (a) of Art. 13(2) of the GDPR)

The video files are stored for 96 hours in order to fulfil the purpose of use over the maximum period (long weekend) for which the site is unoccupied. The system is set up so that deletion occurs automatically by way of overwriting.

Reference to exercising data subject rights (point (b) of Art. 13(2) of the GDPR)

The data subjects have the following rights under the law in relation to data collection:

- Right of access to their personal data (Art. 15 of the GDPR):
The data subject has the right to obtain from the controller confirmation as to whether or not personal data are being collected and, where that is the case, access to the data collected.
- Right to rectification (Art. 16 of the GDPR):
The data subject has the right to obtain from the controller without undue delay the rectification of inaccurate personal data concerning him or her and to have any incomplete personal data completed.
- Right to erasure (Art. 17 of the GDPR):
The data subject has the right to obtain from the controller the erasure of personal data concerning him or her without undue delay unless the grounds listed in Art. 17 of the GDPR do not apply or the purposes pursued are not fulfilled.

- Right to restriction of processing (Art. 18 of the GDPR):
The data subject has the right to obtain from the controller restriction of processing where one of the conditions listed in Art. 18 of the GDPR applies.
- Right to data portability (Art. 20 of the GDPR):
The data subject has the right to obtain from the controller the facility to transmit the personal data concerning him or her to another controller.
- Right to object to processing (Art. 21 of the GDPR):
The data subject has the right to object, on grounds relating to his or her particular situation, at any time, to processing of personal data concerning him or her. The controller shall no longer process the personal data unless the controller demonstrates compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override the interests, rights and freedoms of the data subject or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.
- Right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority (Art. 77 of the GDPR):
Without prejudice to any other administrative or judicial remedy, every data subject has the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority if the data subject considers that the processing of personal data relating to him or her infringes the GDPR. The data subject may exercise this right before the supervisory authority of the Federal State of Bremen.
